

Space to find your way forward

WELCOME TO JABOK

The world can wait.

For a moment, let the demands of everyday life fall away.
Beyond this page, there is room to breathe, to reconnect and to find your way forward.

STEP INSIDE

ARRIVAL

Leave the everyday behind.

A quieter rhythm begins in Dalriach East. Arrive with a question, a plan or simply the wish to pause. Let the next few hours belong to something that matters.

ENTIRELY YOURS

A world of your own.

One individual or one group at a time. Settle into a welcoming home where the shared spaces belong to your stay, and the pace is yours to choose.

THE PERSONAL RETREAT

Let the world fall quiet.

Bring the book you never finish, the thoughts you keep postponing, or the prayer that needs silence. Give yourself the rare pleasure of uninterrupted attention.

TIME, BEAUTIFULLY YOURS

A moment, just for you.

A quiet seat. A slow afternoon. No need to fill every hour. Step away for reflection, writing or rest, and discover what becomes possible when you stop rushing.

STILLNESS & SPIRIT

Be still. See more.

Make room for prayer, spiritual renewal or a decision that deserves care. You do not need to arrive with the answers. Sometimes, the first step is simply to listen.

JUST THE TWO OF YOU

Find your way back to each other.

Leave a little room between yourselves and the everyday. Share an unhurried meal, linger over a conversation and enjoy a retreat shaped around time together.

Unhurried. Uninterrupted. Together.

REST, BEAUTIFULLY CONSIDERED

Let the day settle.

After a day of reflection, conversation or discovery, retreat to the comfort of your room. Soft light, welcoming beds and space to unwind make staying part of the experience.

YOUR PRIVATE CHAPTER

Slow mornings. Softer moments.

Draw the curtains, settle into fresh linen and leave a little time unplanned. A welcoming bedroom offers space to rest between the moments that brought you here.

THE QUIETER DETAILS

A little ritual of renewal.

Freshen up before dinner or take your time as the morning begins. Bath and shower spaces bring the simple comforts of home into your retreat. Ask us about the room arrangements that suit your stay.

THE ART OF STAYING IN

Settle into the glow.

From a morning coffee to an evening toast, the spaces between your plans deserve a little attention. Enjoy conversation at the counter, then settle into the quiet warmth of the lounge.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF BUSINESS SESSION

Good thinking needs space.

Gather a small team around a real conversation. Step beyond the usual meeting room to explore a challenge, shape a strategy or agree on the next chapter together.

FAMILY & CLOSE COMPANY

Reconnect, naturally.

Bring the people whose company you cherish. A quiet family get-together or a small reunion becomes more meaningful when there is time to sit, share and truly catch up.

THOUGHTFUL HOSPITALITY

Looked after, beautifully.

Let meals become part of the pleasure of your stay. Tell us what you have in mind, and discuss the dining arrangements that will make your retreat feel personal.

GATHER AT YOUR TABLE

A seat for your people.

From a shared lunch to a lingering conversation after dinner, the table brings a retreat together. Make space for familiar stories, fresh ideas and the simple warmth of being together.

AFTER THE DAY

Stay a little longer.

When the day has asked enough of you, let the evening give something back. Settle into good company and conversation that has nowhere else to be.

GOLDEN MOMENTS

Let the evening unfold.

As the light softens, the conversation continues. Share a meal, savour the company and let the day close at its own gentle pace.

REST & RECONNECTION

Make room to feel renewed.

Some stays call for stillness; others for laughter and time outdoors. Talk to us about the activities or additional arrangements you would like to explore for your visit.

ROOM TO BREATHE

Find your quiet corner.

Follow the garden into a slower part of the day. Sit with a thought, share a quiet conversation, or simply enjoy having a little space around you.

THE PLEASURE OF BEING HERE

Stay for the space.

Comfortable surroundings, garden moments and meals together make room for the purpose of your visit. Leave with memories to keep and, perhaps, a clearer sense of direction.
